Project Meeting Constância

05.05.-12.05.19

The second meeting took place in Portugal hosted by the Agrupamento de Escolas de Constância. Focusing on problems caused by tourism, we addressed the question of advantages and disadvantages of mass tourism in Portugal's main cities.

The group visiting a military base

The visit offered diverse insights into Portuguese culture and life. A varied programme (e.g. group building activities, great panoramic views and unique experiences like driving a tank) made the week exceptional.

Concerning education and job opportunities we have learned about

- applying for studies in psychology in the University of Lisbon
- experiences in studying abroad (Erasmus)
- job opportunities in some fields of work (e.g. tourism, army, ecology, biology)
